PVSC AWARDS $105,917 IN REBATES TO MEMBER MUNICIPALITIES

NEWARK – The Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners (PVSC) have awarded more than $105,000 to municipalities in its service area to help those towns offset property taxes and other municipal expenses. The rebates are given as part of PVSC’s Municipal Rebate Incentive Program.

“This is a wonderful, cooperative program through which PVSC ensures all new construction projects pay the required connection fee, and our member towns receive some much-needed revenue to help offset the costs of basic services,” said PVSC Chairman Anthony Luna. “We understand that any revenue source is important for these communities in today’s tough economic times.”

The Municipal Rebate Incentive Program is a cooperative effort between PVSC and the towns in its service area and relies on the Code Enforcement Office of each municipality to ensure applicants for construction permits also pay PVSC’s connection fee. In return for their efforts, the municipalities receive annually a percentage of the connection fees collected from their respective communities.

Below is a list of the rebates issued by PVSC this month to municipalities on a calendar year budget. Remaining member municipalities on a fiscal year budget will receive rebates in August.
